

Newsletter 21st May 2015

As promised here is a special edition Newsletter about Castle Week. All the children had a fabulous week. On Wednesday we went to Warwick Castle....

Awards this week:

Butterflies

George Reveler for working really hard to write his own 'Quixote' story. Lily Beesley for working hard to write about the different things she can do when outside.

Owls

George Stubbs and Hugo Mills for writing a detailed and informative fact file on Castles. Lucy Ash and Kaleb for excellent estimating and measuring of capacity.

Dragons

Harry Byrne and Connie Maciejewski have produced some lovely literacy this week. They really listened to the list of features that needed to be used. Thomas Hampson challenges himself in numeracy and always has a go no matter how tricky the question is. Great learning behaviour Thomas.

Rabbits

Macie Vaughan for amazing work using speech marks including starting a new line for a change of speaker. Jacob Blane for always thinking about his presentation and setting a brilliant example with keeping his work neat in all subjects.

Hedgehogs

Amber Goodman for balancing narrative and reflection in her historical diary entry. Fynlay Kelly for applying mapping and coordinating skills to creating a Warwick Castle map and visitor tour.

Eagles

Oscar Hillyard for working really hard in all lessons and making the right choices both in the classroom and on the playground. Oliver Jones for challenging himself in maths, using written methods for multiplication and division, resulting in him making fantastic progress.

The brilliant bowman!

Older children made trebuchets.

Children putting together boards for our big Lego creation

And here it is. Thank you Ryan and your dad for a brilliant day!
